Megan Casey joined CastLight Search as a partner to the firm and a true partner to her clients. She brings an impressive track record of helping clients achieve their strategic objectives leveraging technology. Megan began her career in technology in the 1990's in enterprise software sales and marketing working with healthcare systems across the country focused on driving improved operations, safety, quality and efficiency. With intimate knowledge of the challenges healthcare faces, and a native understanding of technologies to address these challenges, Megan's mission is to help clients successfully achieve their goals with the exact right talent.

Prior to CastLight Search, Megan was a top 1% performer at Cerner, where she spent the first ten years of her career. The next ten years Megan focused on data analytics and population health with software leaders, Zynx and Stanson Health. Megan has connected with leading innovators in healthcare throughout her career. She specifically brings deep knowledge to population health leadership, chief data officer, chief data analytics and clinical informatics leadership. Megan holds two BA degrees from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Economic and International Studies.
